Celebrations Around the World

In the newly released issue of Saladmaster's magazine, we look back over the past several months, look forward to the New Year and remember various celebrations around the world. We look at the food that brings together families and friends to honor special occasions and gather around the dining table.

Featured recipes that are characteristic to certain celebrations include: Indonesian Ketupat (or rice cakes) during Idul Fitri, Sancocho Panameño during Panama Carnival, Pancakes on Pancake Day in Britain, and Ribbe during Christmas in Norway.

All around the world, people are looking to Saladmaster as a business opportunity and headed for a career with many opportunities for growth. This magazine features stories of success from four Authorized Dealers that reached Master Dealer level in 2011. The following excerpts are taken from each of their stories.
